SUBJECT: Open Meeting Law Complaint by City Councillor Jadeane Sica against City Councillor Karen Colòn Hayes

DATE: December 16, 2025¹

FACTS

On November 19, 2025, City Councillor Jadeane Sica filed an Open Meeting Law Complaint (“OML”) alleging that Councillor Karen Colòn Hayes engaged in serial deliberation related to strategy, position and intended outcome on an agenda item- an appointment. The Complaint further alleges that these communications which occurred via text messages, email and phone calls, established “daisy-chain” or “hub-and-spoke” communications, and collectively constituted a quorum.

Councillor Sica stated in part, “Based on information available to me, Councillor Hayes has engaged in private communications with at least five other members of the Malden City Council—representing a quorum—for the purpose of influencing or shaping the Council’s deliberations on the matter presently before us.” (See Complaint ~ Exhibit A).

The agenda item that was the subject of this OML Complaint was paper 432-25, the appointment of Jeffrey Donahue as the Malden Representative of the Northeast Metro Tech School Committee to fulfill a vacant seat. (See City Council Meeting Agenda of Tuesday, November 18, 2025 ~ Exhibit B).

RELEVANT LAW ~ G.L. c. 30A, § 18

The Open Meeting Law defines deliberation as “an oral or written communication through any medium, including electronic mail, between or among a quorum of a public body on any public business within its jurisdiction.” G.L. c. 30A, § 18. For purposes of the Open Meeting Law, a quorum is generally a simple majority of the members of the public body. Id.

The Open Meeting Law was enacted “to eliminate much of the secrecy surrounding deliberations and decisions on which public policy is based.” Ghiglione v. Sch. Comm. of Southbridge, 376 Mass. 70, 72 (1978). Thus, all deliberations of a public body must occur at a meeting for which proper notice has been posted and which is open to the public, unless a lawful executive session has been convened. G.L. c. 30A, § 20.

SUMMARY OF INQUIRY

I interviewed each of the 11 members of the City Council and each of them responded to my inquiries regarding the Complaint. Following is a summary of the responses I received.

Councillor Sica shared text messages sent from Councillor Colòn Hayes to 2 City Councillors and a voice mail message left for 1 City Councillor. Councillor Sica stated that based on the substance of the text messages and the voice mail she believed Councillor Colòn Hayes violated the OML. The text messages consisted of Councillor Colòn Hayes stating her disappointment with the appointment on the agenda, and the process of how the candidate was selected, how she intended to vote; the outcome she was hoping for and the individual she was going to suggest to put forward to fill the vacancy on the school committee of the Voke School. The evidence that Councillor Sica submitted also indicated that Councillor Colòn Hayes stated that she had spoken with Council President Linehan, Councillor O'Malley, and had been “making some phone calls” regarding the agenda item.

Councillor Colòn Hayes stated that she was very careful not to deliberate and chose to contact specific City Councillors who dealt with an issue that she believed was similar to this agenda item. She stated that she contacted Council President Linehan (for procedural questions), left a voice message for Councillor Crowe, texted Councillor Taylor, and had a text conversation and phone call with Councillor Simonelli. Councillor Colòn Hayes relayed the content of the conversation with Council President Linehan and Councillor Simonelli. She also provided several documents including screen shots from Reddit of people expressing their concerns about the appointment, the email from City Clerk Carol Ann Desiderio indicating there was a vacancy at the Voke, the Agreement of the Regional District School Committee for the Voke (which indicated what would happen in the event of a vacancy), and the invitation from Councillor Winslow to go hiking. (I did not find these documents relevant to the issue of serial deliberation). Councillor Colòn Hayes also stated that she made a Facebook post sharing her thoughts about the process of the appointment being incorrect.

Council President Linehan stated that she was contacted by Councillor Colòn Hayes regarding the agenda item; however, the conversation was about the procedure of the appointment. There was no deliberation regarding the agenda item.

Councillors Crowe, Taylor and Simonelli each told me that they were contacted by Councillor Colòn Hayes either via voice message or text message regarding the referenced agenda item. I listened to the voice message left for Councillor Crowe, read the text message sent to Councillors Taylor and Simonelli, and Councillor Simonelli also relayed the content of the conversation he had with Councillor Colòn Hayes. Councillor Colòn Hayes stated that she opposed the appointment, what she would like to happen at the City Council meeting and why, and indicated the individual she would like to be considered for the appointment.

Councillors Condon and McDonald each received a telephone call on or about November 17, 2025 (the day before the City Council meeting) from Councillor Colòn Hayes. Councillor Condon said he did not return her call, and Councillor McDonald stated that it was a missed call. Neither of them spoke with Councillor Colòn Hayes on that day, nor did either of them have any communication with Councillor Colòn Hayes regarding the agenda item.

Neither Councillors Sica nor Spadafora received any communication from Councillor Colòn Hayes.

Councillor O'Malley stated that he spoke with Councillor Colòn Hayes via telephone and merely discussed that the agenda contained the appointment item. However, it was a short call and there was no deliberation on either side.

Councillor Winslow stated that on November 17th he and Councillor Colòn Hayes went for a hike. This hike was initiated by him prior to the issue about the agenda item, and the intent was as a post-election follow-up with Councillor Colòn Hayes and to discuss goals for 2026. (Councillor Colòn Hayes provided a screenshot of Councillor Winslow's invitation which was prior to November 17th.) Councillor Winslow stated that at the end of the hike the agenda item came up briefly and the discussion was about calls he had received about the agenda item, about the role of the City Council relative to this appointment and where he could obtain the legislation regarding this item. Councillor Winslow stated there was no deliberation on this agenda item.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

To find a violation, there must be oral or written communication through any medium, including electronic mail between or among a quorum of a public body on any public business within its jurisdiction." G.L. c. 30A, § 18. In addition, the expression of an opinion by one public body member on matters within the body's jurisdiction to a quorum of a public body is considered a deliberation, even if no other public body member responds. See OML 2016-104; OML 2015-33; OML 2012-73.

To find a violation of the OML you need both (1) communication; and the communication must be, (2) about public business, between or among a quorum. In this case Councillor Colòn Hayes did not violate the OML.

(1) Was there Communication?

Yes, there was communications between Councillor Colòn Hayes and members of the City Council. The facts indicate that the communications were between Councillor Colòn Hayes and 6 other City Council members (Linehan, Crowe, O'Malley, Simonelli, Taylor and Winslow).

(2) Was that communication between or among a quorum about public business?

No. The facts bear out that although Councillor Colòn Hayes spoke with 6 other City Council members, not all of the communication was about public business. Councillor Colòn Hayes discussed public business with only 3 other City Council members (Crowe, Simonelli and Taylor). A quorum of the 11-member City Council is 6 members. In this case, the “daisy-chain” or “hub-and-spoke” communication about public business was amongst 4 City Council members, including Councillor Colòn Hayes.

Councillors Linehan, O'Malley and Winslow stated that their conversations were not deliberations regarding the agenda item; but either procedural or merely pointing out that the appointment was listed on the agenda and where to gather legislative information.

ADMONITION

I strongly encourage the City Council members to be very cautious about deliberating on public business, like agenda items. Be mindful of deliberating in general. Deliberation can occur if Councillor A speaks with Councillor B about an agenda item, and Councillor B speaks with Councillor C about that same agenda item, and so on. This type of chain of communication can reach a quorum simply because Councillor A deliberated with Councillor B.

Although Councillor Colòn Hayes did not violate the OML, the content of the text messages and voice message are worrisome. Please, err on the side of caution. If you are unsure, check the Open Meeting Law guide or contact my office. Again, I urge the Council to refrain from even the appearance of deliberation.

Description of alleged violation:

Describe the alleged violation that this complaint is about. If you believe the alleged violation was intentional, please say so and include the reasons supporting your belief.

Note: This text field has a maximum of 3000 characters.

The Open Meeting Law strictly prohibits serial deliberation—that is, a series of private, non-public communications among members of a public body that, taken together, involve a quorum and constitute deliberation outside of a posted public meeting.

Based on information available to me, Councillor Hayes has engaged in private communications with at least five other members of the Malden City Council—representing a quorum—for the purpose of influencing or shaping the Council's deliberations on paper #432-25 regarding the appointment of Jeffrey Donahue presently before us.

These communications reportedly occurred via text message, email, and/or phone calls, and were explicitly related to strategy, positions, and intended outcomes regarding the agenda item from last night.

Such serial private communications violate:

M.G.L. c. 30A, § 18, which requires deliberations to occur in an open and publicly accessible meeting; and The Attorney General's guidance prohibits "daisy-chain" or "hub-and-spoke" communications that collectively involve a quorum.

While publicly advocating transparency, these private discussions directly undermine the public's right to observe the deliberative process. The integrity of tonight's proceedings is compromised when members participate in off-record deliberation intended to influence the outcome of a public vote.

What action do you want the public body to take in response to your complaint?

Note: This text field has a maximum of 500 characters.

To preserve the integrity of this process and ensure compliance with the Open Meeting Law, I respectfully request the following:

That Councillor Hayes recuse herself from all participation, deliberation, and voting on this matter due to the serial deliberation described above.

That the Council take corrective action, including public acknowledgement of the violation and implementation of safeguards to prevent further serial deliberation or private lobbying among members.

That this complaint be forwarded to the Attorney General's Division of Open Government for review, as required by law.
